

Administrator

Job Description / Person Specification

Established in 1985, Challenge Consultancy Ltd specialises in the provision of diversity and inclusion training services. With the acquisition of several prestigious clients including The Houses of Parliament, L'Oreal Paris, the Barbican, and numerous universities and charities we are experiencing increasing demand.

Since inception, Challenge has assisted organisations to address equality issues and incorporate them into their policies and systems, their practices and their culture.

Training courses, programmes, workshops and consultancy are delivered by Challenge's Chief Executive and Founder, Femi Otitoju, its Training Director, Donna Carty, our in-house training team and a diverse range of Associate Trainers. The operational delivery, business development and course reviews are undertaken by a small office-based core team.

Reporting to the Delivery Manager, the Administrator will work alongside other Administration staff, as well as a Finance Officer, to support organisational delivery aims by providing a range of administrative functions. The postholder will be skilled at multi-tasking, prioritising and excellent customer service to ensure our managers and clients receive a high-quality service.
